We have reviewed the Independent Auditor's Report of the Clark State Community College Foundation, Clark County, prepared by Clark, Schaefer, Hackett & Co., for the audit period July 1, 1999 through June 30, 2000. Based upon this review, we have accepted these reports in lieu of the audit required by Section 117.11, Revised Code. The Auditor of State did not audit the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, we are unable to express, and do not express an opinion on them.

Our review was made in reference to the applicable sections of legislative criteria, as reflected by the Ohio Constitution, and the Revised Code, policies, procedures and guidelines of the Auditor of State, regulations and grant requirements. The Clark State Community College Foundation is responsible for compliance with these laws and regulations.

Independent Auditors' Report

Board of Directors
Clark State Community College Foundation
Springfield, Ohio

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Clark State Community College Foundation (a nonprofit organization) as of June 30, 2000, and the related statement of activities and statement of cash flows for the year then ended. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Clark State Community College Foundation as of June 30, 2000, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated November 17, 2000, on our consideration of Clark State Community College Foundations' internal control over financial reporting and our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grants. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and should be read in conjunction with this report in considering the results of our audit.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

The financial statement of Clark State Community College Foundation have been prepared on the accrual basis. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statement to the reader.

Organization

The Clark State Community College Foundation (Foundation) is a not-for-profit Ohio corporation to aid and promote education at Clark State Community College and to assist students attending Clark State Community College. Administrative services are provided by Clark State Community College.

Financial statement presentation

The Foundation adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, "Financial Statement of Not-For-Profit Organizations." Under SFAS No. 117, the Foundation is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Cash

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Foundation considers all demand bank deposits as cash. The Foundation considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue

The Foundation reports contributions as restricted if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the contributions. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Investments

Investments are stated at fair value and represent shares with The Common Fund, a not-for-profit organization that pools the resources of various colleges, universities and other not-for-profit organizations. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are reported in the statement of activities.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income taxes

The Foundation is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Report on Compliance and on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting based on an Audit of Financial Statement Performed in Accordance with Government Auditing Standards

To the Board of Directors of
Clark State Community College Foundation

We have audited the financial statement of Clark State Community College Foundation (a nonprofit organization) as of and for the year ended June 30, 2000, and have issued our report thereon dated November 17, 2000. We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Compliance

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Clark State Community College Foundation's financial statement are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit, we considered Clark State Community College Foundation's internal control over financial reporting in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statement and not to provide assurance on the internal control over financial reporting. Our consideration of the internal control over financial reporting would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control over financial reporting that might be material weaknesses. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statement being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. We noted no matters involving the internal control over financial reporting and its operation that we consider to be material weaknesses.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Finance/Investment (audit) committee, management, others within the organization and Auditor of State of Ohio and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
