We have reviewed the Independent Accountant's Report on Applying Agreed-Upon Procedures of the Loudonville-Mohican Convention and Visitor's Bureau, Ashland County, prepared by Jessica Heldman, CPA, for the period January 1, 2023 through December 31, 2024. Based upon this review, we have accepted this report in lieu of the audit required by Section 117.11, Revised Code.

Our review was made in reference to the applicable sections of legislative criteria, as reflected by the Ohio Constitution, and the Revised Code, policies, procedures and guidelines of the Auditor of State, regulations and grant requirements. The Loudonville-Mohican Convention and Visitor's Bureau is responsible for compliance with these laws and regulations.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S REPORT ON APPLYING AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES

Loudonville-Mohican Convention and Visitor's Bureau
Ashland County
544 N. Union St.
Loudonville, OH 44842

We have performed the procedures enumerated below on Loudonville-Mohican Convention and Visitors Bureau's (the Bureau) receipts, disbursements and balances recorded in the cash basis accounting records for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 and certain compliance requirements related to those transactions and balances, included in the information provided to us by the management of the Bureau. The Bureau is responsible for the receipts, disbursements and balances recorded in the cash basis accounting records for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 and certain compliance requirements related to these transactions and balances included in the information provided to us by the Bureau.

The Board of Trustees and the management of the Bureau have agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate to meet the intended purpose of providing assistance in the evaluation of the Bureau's receipts, disbursements and balances recorded in their cash-basis accounting records for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, and certain compliance requirements related to these transactions and balances. Additionally, the Auditor of State has agreed to and acknowledged that the procedures performed are appropriate to meet their purposes. No other party acknowledged the appropriateness of the procedures. This report may not be suitable for any other purpose. The procedures performed may not address all the items of interest to a user of the report and may not meet the needs of all users of the report and, as such, users are responsible for determining whether the procedures performed are appropriate for their purposes. The sufficiency of the procedures is solely the responsibility of the parties specified in the report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose.

For the purposes of performing these procedures, this report only describes exceptions exceeding $10.

The procedures and the associated findings are as follows:

Cash

1. We recalculated the December 31, 2024 and December 31, 2023 bank reconciliations. We found no exceptions.
2. We agreed the January 1, 2023 beginning fund balances for each fund recorded in the Trial Balance Report to the December 31, 2022 balance in the prior year documentation in the prior year Agreed-Upon Procedures working papers. We found no exceptions. We also agreed the January 1, 2024 beginning fund balances for each fund recorded in the Trial Balance Report to the December 31, 2023 balances in the Trial Balance Report. We found no exceptions.
3. We agreed the 2024 and 2023 bank reconciliations as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 to the total fund cash balances reported in the General Ledger. The amounts agreed.
4. We confirmed the December 31, 2024 bank account balances with the Bureau's financial institution. We found no exceptions. We also agreed the confirmed balances to the amounts appearing in the December 31, 2024 bank reconciliation without exception.
5. We selected all reconciling debits (such as outstanding checks) from the December 31, 2024 bank reconciliation:
 - a. We traced the outstanding check to subsequent bank statements, but the check had not cleared. We notified the Bureau's management, and this check has since been voided.

- b. We traced the amount and date to the check register and determined the debit was dated prior to December 31. We found no exceptions.
6. We selected all reconciling credits (such as deposits in transit) from the December 31, 2024 bank reconciliation:
- a. We traced each credit to the subsequent January bank statement. We found no exceptions.
 - b. We agreed the credit amount to the General Ledger and determined it was dated prior to December 31. We found no exceptions.

Cash Receipts

1. We confirmed with Ashland County the lodging taxes it paid to the Bureau during the years ending December 31, 2024 and 2023. Ashland County confirmed the following amounts:

Year Ended	Amount
December 31, 2024	$ 173,935
December 31, 2023	$ 166,625

2. We compared the amounts from step 1 to amounts recorded as lodging tax receipts on the Bureau's General Ledger. We found no exceptions.

Cash Disbursements

1. We inquired of management regarding sources describing allowable purposes or restrictions related to the Bureau's disbursements of lodging taxes. We listed these sources and summarized significant related restrictions below:

Source of Restrictions

- a. The Bureau's Articles of Incorporation
- b. The Bureau's 501(c)(6) Tax Exemption
- c. Agreement with Ashland County
- d. Ohio Rev. Code § 5739.092

The Bureau's tax exemption prohibits it from disbursements supporting a candidate's election.

Ohio Rev. Code § 5739.092 restricts the Bureau to spending lodging tax "specifically for promotion, advertising, and marketing of the region in which the county is located."

Auditor of State Bulletin 2003-005 concludes that disbursement of public funds (e.g. lodging taxes) for alcohol are generally improper. However, Auditor of State Bulletin 2014-003 explains when sales of alcohol at public events are permissible.

2. We selected 10 disbursements of lodging taxes from the General Ledger for the year ended December 31, 2024 and 10 disbursements from 2023 and compared the purpose for these disbursements as documented on vendor invoices or other supporting documentation to the sources of restrictions listed in Cash Disbursements Step 1 above. We found no instances where the purpose described on the invoice or other supporting documentation described a violation the restrictions listed above.

We were engaged by the Bureau to perform this agreed-upon procedures engagement and conducted our engagement in accordance with the attestation standards established by the AICPA and the Comptroller General of the United States' Government Auditing Standards. We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination or review engagement of the Bureau's lodging tax receipts and disbursements for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, the objective of which would have been to opine on lodging tax receipts and disbursements or provide a conclusion. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion or conclusion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that we would have reported to you.

We are required to be independent of the Bureau and to meet our ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the ethical requirements established by the Comptroller General of the United States' Government Auditing Standards related to our agreed upon procedures engagement.
